

The Strangers in the Rexford Park

By Joshua Yanez

It was a calm day until there were strangers in the park. The strangers were standing in the dark shade. The only thing you could see were dark brown eyes. Back at the station I tried to figure out who the suspects were. I couldn't find any clues. I called my squad. Garrett, Seth, and Roberto also work for the C.I.A. We went over every detail and every clue.

We talked to all the people that lived around the park. We came up with some witness that seemed reliable. Morgan said they wore gloves and a ski mask and Jazline said they had a red Mustang. Seth, Garrett, and Roberto found all the clues and I found the red Mustang. I got in my Ford Raptor and when he saw me the strangers were trying to escape. We were in pursuit. Roberto put out the spike strips.

The Red Mustang went over the spike strips. After that we arrested them and interrogated them. They told us they were escaping to the airport to steal the Mona Lisa. So that's my report on the strangers.
