

Tough Losses for the B-Team Lady Bulldogs

By Maggi Nieman

On Thursday, December 18, 2014, the Lady Bulldogs traveled to Almena to play the Northern Valley Huskies for their last game before Winter Break..

The C-team girls played one quarter of a game. Danica Ritter scored two points, winning the game, 2-0.

The B-team girls played a full four quarters. They started out the game from behind with the first quarter score of 4-6. The Lady Bulldogs continued to trail the Huskies 8-11 at the half. The Bulldogs were able to play defense well enough to keep off the Huskies from scoring in the third quarter and pull ahead 15-11.

The fourth quarter was an exciting quarter. The Bulldogs added two to their score, but the Huskies fought back in to send the game into overtime with a 17 point tie. The Bulldogs ended up losing by two with a final score of 17-19 giving the B-team girls their first loss of the season. Scorers for the Lady Bulldogs were, Brooke Stoll-5, Taryn Fleckenstein-4, Malilah Green-2, Sable Finlay-3, Tylor Todd-2 points, and Rileigh Korte-2.

The Lady Bulldogs will play two games immediately after the break as they hosted Western Plains on January 5 and Cheylin on January 8.
