

JV Girls Win at Logan
By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains JV girls basketball team won their second game of the season in Logan on January 4 to start off the 2019 season.

The Lady Bulldogs jumped to a 12-7 lead in the first of this two quarter game. The continued to outscore the Lady Trojans in the second quarter of play 10-6 for the 22-13 win.

The girls spread the ball around with Rayna Taylor leading the offense with 5 points. Four each were scored by Amie Cheney, Carli Nieman, and Taryn Fleckenstein. Morgan Wark added 3 and Candace Taylor 2.

"We played well for only having six girls," said Rayna Taylor. "We all worked well together and everyone contributed to the win." The JV girls will play two more quick games with a home game against St. Francis on Saturday and a full game in Oberlin on Monday, January 7.
