

JV Girls Fight to the Finish
By Mabel Lugo

The Golden Plains JV Bulldogs took on the Cheylin Cougars and the Quinter Bulldogs in Bird City on September 24, 2019. The girls only played one set against each team ending the night with two hard losses.

The Lady Bulldogs started the night of against the Quinter Bulldogs. The girls struggled to play with each other, losing 11-25. "The first game had a lack in communication," said Karlissa Shepherd, "but we played very well as a team."

Their next game was against the Cheylin Cougars. "The second game we had more communication and played with a will to win," continued Shepherd. The Lady 'Dogs started with intensity and kept the game close but fell to the Cougars 20-25. "We struggled to play during the first game but we worked hard even though we lost," added Karla Lopez. "We were more determined to play harder against Cheylin because of how supportive are crowd was."

The JV girls will play again on September 30 as they travel to Oakley for JV only matches against Oakley and Heartland Christian.
