

MS Volleyball Split Matches against the Huskies

By Emma Weiner

The Golden Plains Middle School traveled to compete against the Northern Valley Huskies in Long Island on Thursday, September 10. The A-Team and B-Team were both victorious in two sets, but the C-Team fell to the Huskies in a one set match.

The A-Team started up the evening by taking the lead in the first set with Braylee Knowles giving the Dogs an edge with a seven serve streak to finish up the set with a score of 25-16. The Dogs kept up their good work in the second set and came up victorious against the Huskies with a score of 25-16 once again. “The game went well!: said Braylee Knowles-7th grade. “We did a good job of talking to each other, but we need to keep working on our serves. I’m excited for the rest of the season and can’t wait to play more games!”

The B-Team girls played the second game. They started off strong with Katie Carter serving 12 in a row to give the Bulldogs an early lead. The Dogs finished strong and won their first set with a score of 25-13. The second set was a little more difficult, but the girls pushed through and won the 25-20.

The C-Team girls played one set to 25 to finish up the night of volleyball. They worked hard, but came up short, ending with a score of 14-25.

The next action of the season will be in Rexford on September 17, where they will be facing off against the Wheatland-Grinnell Thunderhawks starting at 4:00 pm.
