

Lady Bulldogs Work for the Win over Titans By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains Lady Bulldogs worked hard for the 39-20 win over Triplains/Brewster in Rexford on January 19.

The game started off with a close first quarter with the Titans leading 9-8 at the end of the quarter. The Bulldogs pulled together and held the Titans to 2 points in the second while adding 13 to take and hold the lead 21-11 at the half.

The third quarter was a little slow with each team only making one basket. However, the Bulldogs stepped to the free throw line for six to extend their lead to 28-14 at the end of the quarter. The Dogs kept working their way inside in the fourth to add 11 more while the Titans added 6 giving Golden Plains the 39-20 win.

Senior Jordyn Fleckenstein led the Bulldogs with 15 points along with 12 from sophomore Anais Cepeda. Hayden Wark put in 7 and Kailee Wessel 5. "I'm proud of our team for how well they've worked all season," said Fleckenstein. "We are now 8-2 this season and look forward to the upcoming league tournament."

Fleckenstein led the Dogs with 13 rebounds, 5 steals, and 2 assists. Wessel had 8 rebounds and 2 steals. Cepeda had 3 rebounds, 3 assists, and 3 steals. Wark had 1 rebound and 1 steal and Siena Vargas had 1 rebound and 1 assist. The Bulldogs played at home again on January 23 when they hosted Quinter.
