

Scholars Open Season in Rexford

By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains High School Scholar Bowl team opened their season at the Golden Plains Invitational in Rexford on October 30. The team members, including Wyatt Amlong, Jordyn Fleckenstein, Diego Perez, Emma Weiner, Dominic Stout, Tanner Black and Jaxson Vasbinder, ended in a four-way tie with a record of 3-5 for fourth place.

The team opened the season with a huge loss 10-90 to Wallace County, who won the meet. The remaining rounds were close—within a question or two—as they lost to Triplains 20-40, to Wheatland 25-40, Rawlins County 10-40, and Hill City 20-40. Hill City placed second at the meet.

The Bulldogs claimed wins over Weskan 40-20, Cheylin 50-30, and finished with a 50-10 win over St. Francis. “We were a little nervous, but it went well,” said Tanner Black. “The questions were really hard, but we did well overall. We should improve as the season progresses.” Their next meet will be at Cheylin on November 6.
