

The Lady Bulldogs Claim Three Wins

By Jaqueline Manriquez

The Golden Plains Middle School volleyball team played against Northern Valley and Alma, Nebraska, on Sept 21 in Long Island. The A team won one and lost one while the B team won both their games.

The A-team started off the night against Alma. The Lady Bulldogs won the first set with 25-18. The second set was a close one but the Bulldogs fell short 21-25 sending the match to a third set. The Bulldogs played hard but still fell short 10-25. "I feel like we played hard against Alma," said Elizabeth Weiner, 8th grade, "but on the third set we just didn't play as hard as the other sets. We need to work harder on our serve receive".

The second game for the Bulldogs was against the Northern Valley Lady Huskies. In the first set, the Bulldogs claimed the win 25-16. The Bulldogs pulled through for the win 25-15 for the final set.

The B- team started their night off against Alma. The Lady Bulldogs had a close first set 15-12. In the second set the Bulldogs claimed the win 15-6.

The second game for the B-team Lady Bulldogs was against Northern Valley. Starting in the first the Lady Bulldogs gained a wide gap winning the set 15-1. The second set was closer, but the Bulldogs still pulled through with a 15-10 win. "Starting our night with Alma was a bit of a struggle," said Makenlea Focke, a 6th grader. "We did very well communicating with each other. We just need to improve on getting our passes to the setter.

The Lady Bulldogs continued their season on September 28 at Weskan.
