

Boys Challenged in Quinter By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains boys basketball team was challenged by the Quinter Bulldogs in Quinter on January 24. Both teams worked hard throughout the game with Quinter earning the win 46-26 over Golden Plains.

Golden Plains opened with 7 points in the first but Quinter pushed the ball to lead 15-7 by the end of the quarter. GP put in a three by Jacob Ritter and two free throws from Nolan Ritter in the second to trail 25-12 at half time.

Golden Plains continued to work the ball in the third as they tried to whittle away at the spread. They had their best quarter with nine including another three by Nolan Ritter as their defense held Quinter to seven. The final quarter was another struggle to score for Golden Plains. Brett Gerbitz did hit a three along with a basket by Devin Carter, but Quinter added another 14 for the win.

“We worked hard at Quinter and got the game to within 9 at one point,” said Senior Brett Gerbitz. Gerbitz had 9 points for Golden Plains while Nolan Ritter added 5. Jacob Ritter and Dawson Spreser each put in 4 while Dylan Spreser and Devin Carter added 2 each. The Bulldogs are looking forward to playing at home against Triplains/Brewster on Friday, January 27.
