The Golden Plains Lady Bulldogs played a close game in Quinter on January 24, coming home with the 41-38 win. "Although we got behind, we never gave up," said senior Gabrielle Schiltz who had a season high 22 points in the win. "We are all working well together as a team," added Schiltz. "It's been a good senior season."

The girls fell behind Quinter in the first quarter 9-12. Quinter continued to hold the lead at half time 24-19. The Golden Plains girls took over in the second half to outscore Quinter 14-10 in the third but still trailed by one 33-34. Staying the course, the GP girls pushed hard to put in 8 points in the fourth holding Quinter to 4 to gain the win.

"This was a tough game," continued Schiltz. "We had to guard shooters everywhere on the floor." Along with Schiltz's 22 points, KayCee Miller added 11, Mabel Lugo 4, Maggi Nieman 2, and Kaylie Schaben 2.

Golden Plains hustled for the rebound with Morgan Ritter 8, Miller 7, Schaben 5, Schiltz 4, and Lugo 3. Assists were handed over by Miller 4, Ritter 2, Schiltz 1, and Nieman 1. Steals were grabbed by Ritter 3, Miller 2, Nieman 2, and Lugo 2.
