

JV Boys Play in Quinter
By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains JV boys played in Quinter on January 24 in the battle of the Bulldogs. The Quinter boys took an early lead and held on to it throughout the game for the 45-24 win over Golden Plains.

GPHS put in six points in the first but only made a single basket in the second. With 14 points each quarter, Quinter led 28-8 at the half. Golden Plains rallied in the second half with a 10 point third quarter. They finished with six in the fourth as the Quinter team held on for the win.

The GP Bulldogs worked together in the game with numerous team members scoring. Freshman Austin Patmon led with 6 along with Nicolai Schuellner 5, Devin Carter 4, Jose Ortiz 3, Colby Lathrop 2, Nolan Ritter 2, and Jaime Infante 2. The boys will return to play at home on Friday, January 27, when they host the Triplains/Brewster Titans.
