

JV Boys Take A Loss
By Beth Luna

The Golden Plains JV boys played against Western Plains at Rexford on January 13. The JV boys only played two quarters losing a close game 15-16.

The Bulldogs opened the first quarter with 7 points before allowing the Bobcats to score. They finished the quarter ahead 11-4.

The Bulldogs scored an additional 4 points in the second quarter of play but the Bobcats pulled ahead with numerous free throws to win the game 16-15.. Jose Ortiz scored a three point shot with an additional basket each by Dylan Spresser, Devin Carter, Clayton Bange, Colby Lathrop, Jaime Infante, and Nicolai Schullner.

“We did really well on rebounding and hustling up and down the court,” said freshman Jaime Infante. “The things that we need to work on most is defense and offense.” The JV team will play a full game against Weskan on January 20 and against Quinter on January 24.
