

Last Chance State Qualifiers
By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains High School Forensic team members attended a last chance meet in Ransom on April 10. Several events that had worked hard all season competed in this final opportunity to qualify for State Champs in early May.

Brielle Karnes and Addy Wessel won first place with their duet “Night Mother,” qualifying for state. Tanner Black also qualified in Poetry with his presentation of “Here Bullet.” “I was pretty confident in the finals,” said Black. “I’m glad to qualify for State Champs again this year.” He qualified in IDA as a freshman.

Dominic Stout and Janessa Leija each presented in Prose with Stout placing sixth. “I am so proud of this team,” said Coach Robynn Wessel. “We are taking eight events to Champs this year and qualified another for Festivals. Great job Bulldogs!”

The eight events qualifying for State Champs in Hutchinson on May 4 include: Wyatt Amlong-Extemp, Tanner Black-Poetry, McKinzie Horobik-Poetry, Jorja Juenemann-Prose and Poetry, Addy Wessel & Janessa Leija-IDA, Janessa Leija-Prose, Addy Wessel & Brielle Karnes-Duet, Addy Wessel-Poetry. Dominic Stout qualified for State Festival in Prose.
