

Middle School Scholars Bowl Competes in First Meet By Emma Weiner

The Golden Plains Middle School competed in their first scholars bowl meet of the season in Rexford on Monday, October 24. Competing on the 8th grade team this year are Elizabeth Weiner, Cristian Garcia, Lakin Wark, Briella Knowles, Takoda Cline, and Ben Masoner. The 8th Grade finished the meet with a record of 3-3, with wins over Triplains/Brewster, Greeley County, and Cheylin. They fell to Weskan, Heartland Christian, and Grinnell/Wheatland.

The 7th grade placed 2nd at the meet, with a record of 4-1. Team members are Jade Dible, Estrella Aguilar, Elizabeth Romero, Koen Schaben, Jemma Juenemann, Yari Romo, Brandon Karnes and Alicia Vargas. They defeated Weskan, Grinnell/Wheatland, Greeley County, and Cheylin. Their one loss was to Heartland Christian. "It was good to get second at our first meet of the year," said Elizabeth Romero. "Next time we can work together and talk more."

The 6th grade team consists of Ruxin Arnberger, Jaxon Juenemann, MaKenlea Focke, Cameron Sweigert, and Blake Horobik. They completed in their first meet with a record of 2-3. They were able to defeat Weskan and Greeley County, but fell to Grinnell/Wheatland, Triplains/Brewster, and Heartland Christian. "My first meet was pretty fun," said Ruxin Arnberger. "My favorite part was getting my very first answer correct." The next Scholars Bowl meet will be on November 6th in Atwood.
